ALTAGETHER EVENT PLAN

Neighborhood Walk

EFFORT: ●○○ COST: ●○○ STEPS: ●●○

Gather your neighbors for a slow, peaceful walk through the neighborhood. It's low-pressure, free to host, and one of the simplest ways to reconnect after everything everyone has been through. No agenda, no program, just a stroll with your community.

HOW TO PLAN:

2 weeks out — Pick your start point, route, and end point. Morning or early evening works best. Think through accessibility—is the route flat enough for neighbors using a wheelchair or cane?

1 week out — Send invites. Spread the word via your preferred neighbor communication channel, Discord/WhatsApp, group text, or even a yard sign. Recruit a co-host if you can.

Day of — Arrive 10 minutes early. Welcome people as they show up. Set a light tone: casual pace, no one walks alone, this is about connection. Have resource info available if anyone asks, but don't push it.

After — Send a thank-you and share when your next gathering will be. Pass along any resident needs to Altagether.

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- ☐ A simple route (flat if possible)
- ☐ Optional: a small sign or flag to identify the group
- ☐ Optional: printed sheets with neighborhood contact info
- ☐ Optional: case of water

TIPS:

- ✔ Morning and sunset are the sweet spots for timing.
- ✔ Let the walk breathe. Resist the urge to over-facilitate.
- ✔ Remind neighbors that all paces and mobility levels are welcome.
- ✔ If people want to show off their homes or build sites as you walk, go for it!
- ✔ Altagether will reimburse for needed supplies! Save receipts and submit a request.

LONG VERSION

As we continue navigating recovery together, I'd love to invite you to a Healing Walk in our neighborhood. This isn't a formal event—just a calming, slow-paced walk with neighbors who care about this community.

[Date/time/location].

Bring a friend, a dog, or your morning coffee. The goal is simple: connection, fresh air, and a reminder that none of us are walking this recovery path alone. Hope you'll join us.

SHORT VERSION

Hi neighbors — You're invited to a gentle Healing Walk this Saturday at 9am. We'll meet at the corner of [Street] and [Street] for a slow, community walk together. All ages and paces welcome. Just a chance to breathe and reconnect. Hope to see you there.
