ALTAGETHER EVENT PLAN

Coffee In The Driveway

EFFORT: ●○○ COST: ●○○ CAFFEINE: ●●●

Set up a table, put out some coffee, and let neighbors drop by for ten minutes or an hour—whatever they need. It's probably the easiest event you can host, and it works because it asks nothing of anyone. No chairs required. No agenda. Just a reason to say hi.

HOW TO PLAN:

1 week out — Pick a date and a one-hour window. Morning weekends tend to work well.

Day of — Set up a folding table outside. Put out hot and/or iced coffee, water, and cups. A box of pastries goes a long way. Optional: set out a "Neighborhood Ideas" notepad for people to jot things down.

After — Note who came and anything that came up worth passing along.

SUGGESTED COFFEE SHOPS:

✔	Bevel	1866 Allen Ave
✔	Highlight	2071 Lincoln Ave
✔	Unincorporated	3045 Lincoln Ave

All of them sell traveler boxes of coffee!

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- ☐ Coffee (hot and/or iced)
- ☐ Water
- ☐ Cups
- ☐ Pastries or light snacks
- ☐ Folding table*
- ☐ Optional: notepad

Altagether can provide—just ask!*

TIPS:

- ✔ Altagether will reimburse for supplies! Save receipts and submit a request.
- ✔ Keep costs down by asking neighbors to bring their own mug or even go BYO.
- ✔ Keep it to an hour. Shorter is fine.
- ✔ Ask one or two neighbors to help pour or greet—it takes the pressure off you and gives them a role.
- ✔ You don't need to be "on" the whole time. The coffee does the work.

SAMPLE INVITATION:

SHORT AND SWEET

Good morning neighbors! I'm hosting Coffee in the Driveway this Sunday from 9–10am. Swing by for a few minutes, grab a cup, and say hello. Kids are welcome. No agenda, just community!
